The Gallatin Conservation District will hold its annual banquet on Friday, March 14th at the Gallatin Gateway Community Center, 145 Mill Street, directly across from the school. The evening will kick off with a social, sponsored by UAP of Belgrade, from 5:00-6:00 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m.

The District will host a musical form of entertainment this year by Implied Harmony, a registered quartet with the Barbershop Harmony Society. All members of the quartet perform in the Chord Rustlers Barbershop Chorus in Bozeman. The group has performed throughout the state.

A short presentation will also be offered by Wally Congdon, rancher and former legal council for conservation districts. Wally will share his perspective on open space and agriculture.

Several raffles and door prizes will be offered throughout the evening. A “couple’s retreat” raffle features overnight lodging at the Gallatin River Lodge, dinner for two at John Bozeman’s Bistro, swim and massage for two at Bozeman Hot Springs, movie passes, wine & truffles. A “beef & tator” raffle will offer 100% natural Montana beef and potato gift baskets. A larger package, perfect for a family of four, will be offered and a smaller package for a two will be offered. Choice roasts, ribeye, New York strips, sirloins and lean hamburger will be included in the packages.

Also up for grabs is a year’s subscription to The Belgrade News. Door prize items will include eight, 100 cubic inch containerized Colorado blue spruce trees. These trees are anywhere from 14-22” tall. (Winners will pick their trees up in mid-April).

Dinner will be catered by Dykema Catering and will feature a slow-roasted, mouth watering prime rib, locally grown baked potatoes, salad, desert and refreshments. Dinner is $5.00 per person and children 12 and under are free.

The 2007 Conservationist of the year will also be awarded. Each year, the district recognizes an area producer who exemplifies wise use of our natural resources and overall land management. Please join us as we honor this local producer.

Seating is limited so RSVP’s are highly recommended. Call the district at 522-4011 to RSVP or email marcie.murnion@mt.nacdnet.net. Please RSVP by March 10th – only 15 tickets will be sold at the door.
